NEW YORK, WEDNESDAY, JUNE 23, 1880.

NEW YORK VOTES FOR PAYNE A DECISION THAT CREATES MUCH EX-CITEMENT AND SOME BITTERNESS.

Very Earnest Talk in the Meeting at which the Decision was Made-The Convention Meeting, but Griting no Further than the Temporary Organization-Samuel J. Til-den's Name Received with Great Enthusinam-Demands I verywhere Made for the Renomination of the Ticket Elected in 1876 -Tummany Not to Enter the Convention.

CINCINNATI, June 22 .- The sun came up this morning like a ball of copper, and the morning was intensely hot. The political clubs wore astir at an early hour. The Randall men paraded to the music of a Philadelphia band. They were attired in blue suits and white hats, Each man flourished a rattan cane. The spirfting music attracted large crowds, and the banner, presented by the ladies of Philadelphia and adorned by a good portrait of the Speaker of the House, was hailed with loud acclamation. The Hendricks army was in motion; but they had shouted themselves hoarse on the preceding evening, and were moderately enthuinstic. Many had fallen victims to the insidious coffee-colored water of the Queen City, and scores had wandered through the streets all night with old-fashioned carpet bags, vainly With but few exceptions the delegations were all at sea. New York was still groggy under the influence of President Tilden's letter. There was a crush at all the hotels, and the action of the New York and Illinois delegations was awaited with undisquised anxiety. They met at 10 A. M. Illinois determined to concentrate on Morrison, and New York agreed to disagree and held a second meeting in the afternoon. Mr. Jacobs, however, formally withdrew the name of Judge Pratt. There was a total lack of harmony. This indecision throws delegates from other States, who are anxious to follow the lead of New York, off their balance, and confuses everybody. The tide turned toward the Music Hall, where the Convention is held, at 11 o'clock. At that hour the Tammany contestants, headed by John Kelly,Judge Parker, and others, formed in and the bright color of the another appearance of the hall.

Section 1. The section of the sectio

Chairman Barnum came early. The Railroad Committee were conspicuous by their fluming red badges. A justing semicircle addition to the stage holds the President's desk. It was ornamented by a horseshoe of flowers and a monster mallet, which would answer the purposes of a carpenter or stonecutter. The delegated crifted into the hall in squads, by States. New Jersey entered headed by Col. Zulic at an early hour. Henry Watterson marched at the head of the Kentuckians, and was warmly cheered. Connecticut presented a solid front of American Englishmen. The faces of David A. Wells, Alfred E. Burr, and Eagh Wheeler gave the delegation a highly intellectual appearance. Little Delaware swept to her seat marshalled by ex-Senator Saulsbury. The Empire State of the South entered the hall in a solid column under the leadership of A. R. Lawton, P. B. M. Young, and Festrick Walsh of the Augusta Constitutionalist. As Illinois filed down the asile, the spectators broke into a cheer. They had recognized the thin face of Gen. J. A. Me-Clernand, a face that brings back memories of the Iron Duke. It was a band of historic names, including such men as Samuel S. Marshall, Walter E. Carlin, Luther Dearborn, and John M. Crebs. Indiana came in Hendricks's Spartan band, headed by Senatora McDonaid and Voorhees and William E. Niblack, McDonaid bears a striking resemblance to Washington in features. He was received with applause, Many regard him as the coming dark horse. Lowawas marshaled by John P. Irish. Charles W. Blair and Thomas George headed the men from Kansas, and gallant John McEnery and Col. E. A. Burke were conspicuous in the Louislana brigade. Bion Bradbury led the phalanx representing the lumbermen of the Androscoggin, and Pinckney White and John Lee Carroll marshalled the cavallers of the Patapaco, Abbott and Tarbox and Saltonstail and Col. Jonas French entered arm-in-arm at the head of the Bay State Puritans. They had settled all differences in committee this mornin

State.

The Excelsior brigads entered at noon under the leadership of Daniel Manning, Smith M. Weed and Rutus W. Peckham. Among them were William D. Veeder, W. C. Kingsley, James F. Pierce, Archibald M. Bliss, John Fox, Michael Norton, Sheriff Bowe, Bernard Kenney, John Tyler Kelly, Timothy Shea, Mayor Cooper, John E. Devlin, John R. Fellows, Andrew H. Green, John C. Jacobs, William A. Butter, William C. Whitney, Peter B. Oiney, ex-Sanator Caldwell, George M. Beebe, Angustus Schoonmaker, Gen. Charles Hughes.

J. Thomas Spriggs, William A. Poucher, ex-Gov. Walker of Virginia, John M. Wilsy, and a score of prominent men. All eyes were turned toward them, but there was no cheering. All seemed to feel that upon their action depended the selection of a candidate; yet at this late hour they were chasing away shadows and frittering sway their strength in bickerings. The Buckeys brigads was in a stmilar condition. Gen. J. B. Steedman and Durbin Ward and Judge Hoadly and John G. Thompson were among them; and yet they could not dwell together in harmony. The Keystone brigade was also in a disintegrated condition. Malcolm May, R. Milton Speer, Lewis C. Cassidy, Dallas Saunders, Wm. Mo-Mullen, Samuel Josephs, Wm. H. Snowden, Chaunesy F. Black, Edgar Cowan, and other war chiefs were at loggerheads, and no one was willing to eat at a second table. With these three great States rudderless at sea, the friends of no candidate feel safe. Cheers rang through the hall as the delegation from the Palmetto State hove in sight, Gen. Wade Hampton hobbled down the aisle followed by Senator Buller and the remainder of the delegates. He was regarded with much interest. The interest was increased whese he arose and, by the aid of his crutches, moved over to the railing separating the Tammany contestants from the read delegates. Comptroller Kelly got up and shook hands with him. He also introduced him with much warmth. Faint applicates was watted from the galleries; for Tammany, with the chaste faces of Judges Qunn. Parker, Duffy, and Comstock, presented a highly respectable appearance. The ornate bearing of Gardiner's Island evidently produced a lavorable impression on Gen. Hampton. He was dumfounded, however, at the size of Spinola's shirt collar, but seemed pleased with the taste displayed by Commissioner Wright, as though wondering that so handsome a man should appear in such good company, Gen. Hampton they are said to have be said to have be presenced of Col. John W. Daniel, Hell Punch Moffatt, Gen. William Terry, and Thos, S. Bocock. Senat

The Convention Opened-The Mighty Cheer that Greeted Mr. Tilden's Name.

Chairman. Those who favor this nomination will say aye."

There was a responsive volume of ayes.

"Carried unanimously," said Senator Barnum, forgetting to call for the negative vote, and the gaileries were wreathed in smiles,

"The Chair appoints Wm. L. Scott of Pennsylvania and Henry MeHenry of Kentucky to conduct Mr. Hoadly to the chair," Mr. Barnum added,

While those gentlemen were looking for Mr. Hoadly, one of the reading clerks telephoned the band for music, and the distinguished gentleman marched to the blatform, keeping step to the somewhat peculiar strains of "Pull Down the Blinds," Mr. Barnum is a man of business, and not a speechmaker, "There will be enough of speechmaking before this business is concluded, and therefore I thought it better to get to work," he said. He never has much to say, but he is always heard from when the vote of Connecticut is wanted in a national contest.

The nomination of Judge Hoadley was greeted with hearty applause. It was renewed when he appeared on the cheage Convention, spoke of the delegates representing "indestructible units of our indestructible union." This was received with great applause; but the scene of the day was the response to his mention of the "old ticket." It began with the first three words of the sentence in which he referred to Mr. Tilden. "Four years ago—"I'm estid; and the delegates and spectators anticipated what was to follow. A mighty cheer went up. Delegates from nearly every State sprang to their feet, waved handkerchiefs, and swung their hats, When quiet was restored, the speaker went on: "Four years ago—"in estored, the speaker went on: "Four years ago—"in large the delegates and spectators anticipated what was to follow. A mighty cheer went up. Delegates from nearly every State sprang to their feet, waved handkerchiefs, and swung their hats, When quiet was restored, the speaker went on: "Four years ago the Democratic party, in Convention assembled at St. Louis announced to the country its platform and nominated as its candidates two to re hall; and the office you thus fill, though not defined by isw, is of transcendent leval consequence. I need not say that in this assembly it will not be doubted that you are not delegated from Congressional districts, but representatives from those indestructible units of our indestructible Union, the Blates. Custom has defined your duties. They are to construct a platform and to nominate candidates. You are not, however, called together to create a creed, but to apply a known correct principle of the control o bomest arbitration shall deprive we of our rights. The Democratic party and over again appear before a tribunal false-by dailed of justice—a tribunal deal to the spead of testimony, but not blind to the beckoming finger of the control of the statement of the statement of the control of the nation, I protest."

By this time the Sergeant-at-Arms and a corps of supernumeraries were upon the Tuscarora chief, and nearly everybody in the hall was on his feet. Men were rushing down the aisles, and there were shouts of disapproval from all quarters. After firing his gun the renowned warrior intrenched himself in his seat and calle, for a parley. The Sergeant-at-Arms warned him to create no further disturbance, and left him.

Before the meeting of the Convention this morning Mr. Priest informed Mr. Hewitt that the Tammany contestants desired to present their credentials in the Convention. Mr. Priest asked if there was objection to this request. Mr. Hewitt accompanied Mr. Priest to the rear of the hail, where he met Judge Parker, Judge Comstock, and Mr. Keily. Mr. Hewitt said that if Tammany should attempt to take any part in the proceedings of the Convention it would be in violation of the understanding with the National Committee by which they were allowed seats in the hall, and would damage their case before the Committee on Credentials. Messrs. Parker and Comstock said that if their proposition was so regarded they would not present their recedentials to the Convention. They added that Senator Hampton had consented to present their papers to the committee. Mr. Hewitt remarked that the documents could not be in better hands. Mr. Kelly took no part in this conversation, but heard everything that was said. A plain violation of good faith on Mr. Kelly's part is charged. The National Committee pressed a resolution yesterday giving the contesting delegates tickets of admission to the floor, but expressly providing that they should take no part in the organization.

After the roll call the committees were announced as follows:

Passaxiser Oscaszaszarios.—Alabama, Wm. E. Clarke: Aranasa, D. R. Davidson; California, Thomas L. Thompson: Colorado, John F. Humphreys Councellad, D. R.

After the roll call the committees were announced as follows:

Perrakaskey Organization, —Alabama, Wm. E. Clarke;

Perrakaskey Organization, —Alabama, Wm. E. Clarke;

Artanias, D. R. Davishen; Caliberinia, Thomas, L. Thompson;

Colorado, John F. Humphreys; Cempecticut, O. B.

King; Deriware, E. L. Martin; Florida, T. C. Lamer;

Georgia, John B. Stewart; filinois, Charles Duniam; Indiana, Joseph R. McDonald; lowa, E. D.

Feini; Kansaa, George C. Rogers; Kentucky,

William Lindsey; Lonisana, G. W. McGrane,

Maine, Simon S. Brown; Maryland, Wilmot John

Son; Maszachisetts, John P. Sweeny; Michigan,

Bryan S. Ntout; Minnessta, J. C. Pierce, Mis sissippi, B. H. Taylor; Miscouri, G. Cempbell: Nebreaka, J. Sterling Martin, Nevada, George Story;

New Hamphire, Irring W. Jreesi, New Jerrey, Kinna,

Hougett, S. Chie, Wm. E. Havier; Oregon, J. B.

Fennsylvania, Jan B. Riley; Rhode Island, J. J. Damp
sey; South Carolina, P. W. Dawson, Tennessee, W. H.

Carroll, Frans, Thos. M. Jack; Vermont, D. W. Redding
ton; Virginia, Wm. Terry; West Virginia, B. A. Harlowe;

Wisconnie, Earl P. Fitch.

Resolutions—Aiabama, William H. Bernes; Arkansas,

Bonjamin G. Kmery; Colifernia, Cales B. Mattox; Col-G. Emery, California, Caleb H. Mattex; Colorado, C. F. Connor; Connecticus, David, A. Wells, Delaware, George H. Hates: Florida, C. C. You g. Georgia, Evan P. Harvells; Illinois, Melville W. Fullerton; Indiana, John R. Cofforth; Iowa, John P. Liris; Kanasa, J. R. Goodin; Kentucky, Henry Watterson; Louidana, R. A. Burker, Maine, A. MoNicholi; Maryland Charles J. M. Gwinn; Massachusetts, Charles L. Woodbury; Michiera, F. Fratt, Minesota, W. McNair; Massis-spip, R. Barksinle; Missourl, Joseph Pulitaer; Nebraska, Go. L. Miller, New Hampshire, Harvy Blockman, New Jerrey, M. Linck, New York, R. W. Peolis, Mann, New Jerrey, M. Linck, New York, R. W. Peolis, M. M. W. Jerrey, J. M. Linck, New York, R. W. Peolis, M. M. W. Jerrey, J. M. Linck, New York, R. W. Peolis, John K. Medica, L. C. Usasidy; Rhode Island, Nicholas Van Blyck; South Carolina, L. C. Usasidy; Rhode Island, Nicholas Van Blyck; South Carolina, L. C. Jamiel, R. M. W. Weller, John K. Jeck, John Le McKnoney, Texas, John Iceland; Vermont, George S. Waterman, Viruinia, James Barbour; West Virginia, J. H. Goode; Wiscousin, Thomas R. Hudd.

CERDARTILL —Alabama, Joseph M. Johnson, Arkanasa, J. M. Hudson, California, W. P. Prost; Georgia, C. Rillars; Gonnecticut, Ralph Wheeler; Delaware, A. P. Robinson, Florida, B. M. L. Rugle; Georgia, P. M. B. Young; Illinois, Perry H. Smutt; Indiana, William E. Niklack; Jowa, Thomas J. Potter, Kansas, Ku, Carroll, Kentucky, J. W. Haves; Louislana, P. Neaty; Maine, Arthur Sewall; Maryland, S. Victor Botman; Massachusetts, John K. Tarbox; Michienn, J. E. Mesmore; Minesota, H. R. Wells; Missasiph, Warron Cowan, Washachusetts, John K. Tarbox; Michienn, J. E. Mesmore; Minesota, H. R. Wells; Missasiph, Warron Cowan, Volter; Pennsylvania, Wm. H. Sowden, Blode Is and, Volter; Pennsylvania, Wm. H. Bowelt; Vermont, J. H. Williams, Goo. Howard, Ohne, B. Shieleit, Gregon, A. Volter; Pennsylvania, Wm. H. Bowelt; Vermont, J. H. Williams, Wm. L. Rowelli, West Virgims, Wm. L. Wells, Wm. F. Feston; South Carolina, S. Hubber, Tennesoee, F. M. Jones, Texas, R. H. Bassett; Vermont, J. H. W press a preference for a candidate. The corridors were crowded with delegates anxious to President Tilden in the back, and intinated broadly that Mr. Payne was not Mr. Tilden's first choice.

Mr. Weed sprang to his feet as soon as Mr. Shea had ended, and repelled his insinuations with great spirit. He said that he loved Gov. Tilden dearly—better than any man on earth. He appreciated his worth as a man and his great services to the Democratic party. He declared that his course in favoring the nomination of Mr. Payne had Gov. Tilden's approval. He accepted the declination of Mr. Tilden as a finality. The reasons for his declination were good, and his wishes should provail. He pointed out how the letter would be misconstrued should the delegation persist in putting forward Gov. Tilden's name. Mr. Weed opposed Mr. Kingsley's amendment. His speech was frequently interrupted by applause. Col. Fellows followed Mr. Weed. He made a ringing speech in favor of Mr. Payne's nomination. Col. Fellows said that Mr. Payne's nomination. Col. Fellows said that Mr. Payne in his favor. He asserted that Mr. Payne's nomination would carry Ohio as well as New York. He went over Mr. Payne's fine recordant showed the many strong points in his favor. He asserted that Mr. Payne had never been beaten in Ohio for any office for which he had been nominated.

Mr. Kingsley disputed this assertion, and said that Mr. Payne had been beaten for Congress in his district in 1876.

George Smith of the Twenty-third District made a short speech favoring the amendment, and maintained that the circumstances by which Mr. Payne had obtained to the Conyention.

Geo. Charles Hughes asked Mr. Kingsley if which Mr. Pavne had obtained the vote of New York should be explained to the Convention.

Gen. Charles Hughes asked Mr. Kingsley if he thought that it would have been right for delegates in the St. Louis Convention, four years ago, to have protested against the nomination of Mr. Tilden because they thought he could not earry Ohio.

Mr. Kingsley replied that the circumstances were entirely different from what they were then. In 1876 Mr. Tilden had 53 of the 70 delegates, now Mr. Payne has only a majority of two of the delegates.
Mr. Beebe repeated his previous argument against Mr. Kingsley's motion.

Realizing that the motion would not be adopt-orsido. C. F. Connor; Counceticos, David. A. Wells, Delaward P. Herveits; Illinois. Melville, W. Fullerton; Indiana, John R. Codrobi, Iowa, John F. Lirish; Kansas, J. S. G. Wells, S. Melville, W. Fullerton; Indiana, John R. Codrobi, Iowa, John F. Lirish; Kansas, J. S. G. Wells, New John F. Lirish; Kansas, J. S. G. Wells, New John F. Lirish; Kansas, J. S. G. Wells, New John F. Lirish; Kansas, J. S. G. Wells, New John F. Lirish; Kansas, J. S. G. Wells, New John F. Lirish; Kansas, J. S. G. Wells, New John J. S. Wells, J. Wells, J. S. Wells, J. Wells, J. Wells, J. Wells, J. Wells, J. Wells, J. S. Wells, J. Wells, J.

Mr. John Kelly's Fight for Recognition-The Fight in Committee. There is a hot time in the Committee on Credentials. The committee meets in the breakfast room of the Grand Hotel, and the ventilation is bad. The members of the committee and counsel for the regulars and the Tam-many bolters have shed their coats. There is a great demand for cooling drinks. The argument for the regulars was made by Rufus Peckham, John R. Fellows, Lester B. Faulkner, and Gilbert C. Walker. They denounced the Kelly men as bolters, accused them of beating the State Democratic ticket last fall, and asserted that they were not entitled to the slightest consideration.

Nathaniel C. Moak, John Kelly, and Augustus Schell spoke in behalf of Tammany. They said they were no worse bolters than their opponents. They accused Mr. Tilden and his friends of botting the local Democratic ticket in New York city in 1877, 1878, and 1879, and produced documents which they claimed, substantiated this statement. They charged illegality in the construction of the Democratic State Committee, whereby the Tammany members of that Committee were cast out and their places filled by persons who were selected by the committee and not elected by the Democracy of the different Congressional districts. They also allege irregularities in the late State Convention. They lugged in nounced the Kelly men as bolters, accused Schell spoke in favor of the admission of Tammany.

The opposition to Tammany was represented by Messrs. Spriggs, Fauikner, Fellows. Boebe, Peckham and Walker.

The arguments of the Tammany men were chiefly pleas for harmony and union of the divided elements, which would be accomplished by their recognition on the basis of half a vote for each.

The recip of the reculars, was that the com-divided elements, which would be accomplished by their recognition on the basis of half a vote for each.

The reply of the regulars was that the committee had only power to decide as to the regularity of the delegations. The question of harmony must be settled in the State.

John Kelly made a speech in which he spent most of the time in charging that Mr. Tilden had manipulated ballots and blayed a treacherous part toward the Democracy of New York, Mr. Kelly was asked if he would vote for Mr. Tilden if he was nominated. He replied that he would not, individually, but he did not speak for the Tammany organization.

Judges Parker and Comstock said that they would vote for the nominee of the Convention if he was not a thief or a murderer. Each would vote for Tilden. The Tammany men are begging for recognition, and they declare that they will support the nominee, whoever he may be.

At 11.40 the delegation went into executive session, and at midnight had not adjourned.

At 12.15 A. M. the committee decided by vote of 32 to 4 cot to admit Tammany. The 4 dissenting votes were east by Arkansas, Colorado, New Jersey, and Delaware.

Tammany will not be given admission to the floor herealter.

Thurman's Friends Rallying to His Support-

A meeting called by Trusman's friends from various parts of Ohlo was held at Melodien Hall to-night. The Thurman Club of Co-

Benjamin Fish's Death. TRENTON, N. J., June 22.-Benjamin Fish, 91

years old, died here this morning white eating his break tast. He was the oldest railroad man in the State, hav-

Browning of a College Professor. BALTIMORE, June 22.-Prof. John Aloysius lespie of the Society of Jesus, professor of languages and mathematics at Loyola College, in this city, was Dying of a Spider's Bite.

For the toilet and the bath use Glenn's Sulphur Scap. It purifies and beautifies. Of druggists -Ade.

TROY, June 22.—Lizzle Carroll, aged 18 years, was bitten on the upper hip by a black spider on Thursday last, and is dying at the Sisters' Hospital from the effects of the poises.

the story of Gumbleton's removal and of the removal of Police Commissioners Nichols and Smith, John Kelly spoke very feelingly, and evidently produced a favorable impression on some of the Bayard men. They will make a minority report, and this gives rise to the rumor that the Bayard boom is borne partly on the recognition of Tammany.

11:30.—Impromptu Tilden meetings were held in the Grand H-tel and the Burnett House this evening. Every mention of the rightful President's name was received with enthusiastic cheers. The outside current for the "old ti-ket" hourly grows stronger. Some of the Virginia de-grates have reserved despatches from their constituents assuring them that the people demand the old ticket, and urging them to support it.

The Committee on Credentinis met at 8 P. M. at the Grand Hotel. John Kelly, Augustus Schell. A. J. Parger, Judge Comstock, N. C. Moak, and Mr. Miller of Albany, and Judge Cowan of Saratoga, representing Tammany, were admitted to the meeting. All but Mr. Schell spoke in favor of the admission of Tammany.

The opposition to Tammany was represented the imposing edifice in course of errection, will pleasantly mark the growth of the society. The Rev. Halsey Mours, who has been its pastor for the last nine years, briefly told its history, yesterday. From a Sunday school of five pupils and one teacher the little church grew until it now has a membership of 311, and a congression so large that the crection of the new edifice became a no-cessity. The principal movers and douators to the new building were the members of the Calvary Baptist Church in Twenty-third street.

The style of architecture is to be semi-flottic, and the material Philadelphia brick trimmed with Berlin stone.

It will have a front of 195 reet, and a depth of 68. The It will have a front of 100 feet, a.d.s. doubt of 68. The corner stone is of Connecticut, granite, on the three policies of which are the historiptions.

"Acous Christ Hinsell being the Old Corner Stone,"

"Alpha and Omera," and "Erected A. D. 1883;"
In the corner stone were placed the Bible, names of church and Sunday solved members, a brief history of the church, and the principal rolling in jurnals.

Addresses were delivered by the Rev. II. M. Saunders of Vankers, the Rev. R. S. M. Arthur of C. Ivary Church, the Rev. Dr. Historek, and the Kev. Dr. James M. Kung of St. James M. K. Church, Tab homor of laying the stone was accorded to Mr. John II. Deane.

Accused of Swindling a Cadet.

George Harris, a middle-aged man, giving his residence as Philadelphia, was committed in the Tombs Police Court, yesterday, for awinding David C. Shankes, Jr., a cade: admitted this year to West Peint from West Virginia out of $23. The young man was in this city on June 4 on leave of absence, and was joined on his arrival by Harris at Pier 39. North River, who walked with him to Brundway, and learned that he was to return on the Mary Powell in the alternoon. He met voung Shanses, consequently, as he was on the point of leaving, and asked the loan of $23 to any freight for some goods which had arrived by the boat in the morning goods which had arrived by the boat in the morning goods which had arrived by the boat in the morning that the state of the large state of the larg with him to Broadway, and learned that he was to re-

Fatally Benten by Unknown Assallants. Capt. Christopher Lutz of Company G. Thirty-second Regiment, N. G. S. N. Y., is a member of the Brooklyn Soldiers' and Sallers' Union. On Saturday evening he attended the camp fire of the Union at Myrtie Avenne Park. At about midnight, accompanied by two riends from Philedeinhia, they quit the Park and started for the Captain's house, at 421 Wallahout street, Williamsburgh. At Central and Myrtie avenues they were assaulted by a crowd of roughs, who lelled the Captain and one of his friends to the ground. The friend arrangled to his feet, and ran away with his companion, leaving Capt, Lutz to be kicked and pounded by his unknown assailants. Lutz was found and assisted to his home by some citizens. He had an ugly wound at the base of his skull. This was dressed by a physician, and on Tiurselay he went to work. Vesterday aftermion he was called to his home by his wife to see Capt, Parisette of his regiment. While talking he sank back in his chair unconscious. Physicians were unable to revive him. His skull, they say, is fractured, and they have no hopes of his recovery. evening he attended the camp fire of the Union at Myrtis

Elizabeth Mullen's Body.

The body of Elizabeth Mullen, one of the two irls that were drowned from the rowboat that was run own by the Eliza Hancox on Thursday evening last, was found near Governor's Island at about 0 o'clock yesterday morning. The body was first discovered by a sailor on board of a schooner. Thomas Firpatrick, a brother of Nellie Flixpatrick, the other victim of the ac-cident, was at the Battery with some friends, about putcident, was at the Hattery with some friends, about putting out in search of his sister's body, and was there informed of the discovery. He went to the spot expecting to find the heavy of his sister. Upon recognizing the body as that of Eigzabeth Mulien, he took it in the boat to Pier 8. The triends of the dead girl were notified, and the body was taken in charge by an undertaker. When the cettin reached the house it was surrounded by a throng of neighbors and friends. The mother of the drowned girl was at first uncontrollable in her grief.
Then, seeing the brother of Nellie Pitzpatrick standing near, she said: "He was the first one to tell me. I don't want her buried till Nellie can be buried beside her."

Eloping from Brooklyn.

Mr. Holderbach, an upholsterer of 71 Leonard street, Brooklyn, who has a wife and two children, on Monday eloped with Mrs Mary Huas of Gl Boerum street, who has a husband and two children. Among the German nonplation of the Sixteenth Ward their flight hea man population of the Sixteenth Ward their flight has caused much gossip, as both were well known. Its Haas is a midwire. She told her neighbors that she was going to Pennsylvania to live. An express wagen took away two termas and then drove up to Holderbach's residence and trook in two trunks, a sewine machine, and a bed. The couple then followed. When Mrs. Holderbach returned holms and found what had occurred she was very much excited and, by a constable's aid, she recovered her husband's property. Mr. Haas took his wise's departure sersinely and said. "Let her go."

Speeding the Roadsters.

There were many brushes and trials of speed between trotters on St. Nicholas, Seventh, and Jeroma avenues yesterday. One of them was between Edward avenues yeater(as). One of them P. Cleveland's bay team Marshall's bay gelding Dick and P. Cleveland's bay team Pashion and mate, the course being the road from Jen Brad's to Gabe Case's, about a mile. The team was the

It was a jolly party that hade farewell to the passengers on board the steamship Wisconsin that sailed for Liverpool yesterdsy afternoon, the literary and social friends of Mr. William Geochegan, the Celtic poet, of Irrends of Mr. William Geosliegan, the Cettic poet, of 542 Grand street, being in the majority. As the steamship backed into the stream his friends went to the end of the pier and waved, handkerchiefs and has until he could no toncer be distinguished among the throng at the stern. Many actors and actresses bade farewell to the members of Salsbury's Trobadours. James Rei-path, the Rev. J. P. Morran, the Rev. Geo. B. Hopson of Princeton College, Prof. J. M. Hart, and the Rev. M. W. Hanna were among the passengers.

Keeping an Eye on Brooklyn's Water Supply. Commissioner John French yesterday issued a notice to consumers of Rulgewood water, urging econ-omy in its use, because, as a consequence of the great omy in its use, because, as a consequence of the great drought which prevailed during the winter and the spring months, the supply is very precarious, and unless there is a careful supervision over the water fixtures to prevent water, water will have to be irrushed to con-sumers under restrictions, which will be irksome and unpopular. Commissioner French yeaterday directed the hydrant inspectors to patrol their districts every day from 7.4 M to 6.P. M., to check all waste, and to note violations of the law.

The Treasurer of Chebra Buat Prashko.

The Hebraw benevolent society, Chebra Bnal rashko, discovered recently what appeared to be a leak n their finances. The suspicions of some of the mem

Bathers Pelted with Hallstones.

Coney Island was visited by a severe hall storm on Monday afternoon, much to the discomfort of a number of bathers who were splashing in the surf at the number of bathers who were spissing in the surfat the time. The finisiones were as isrce as peas, and caused the bathers to wince with pain. This caused a ceneral scattering, and is less than two minutes the surf was de-serted. The storm lasted only fineer minutes, during which time the wind blew a gale, canning a heavy surf to beat upon the beach. The pelling finishment were followed by rain.

Mrs. Barry's Rolling Pin. William Barry, a butter dealer in Washing-william Barry, a butter dealer in Washing-ton Market, living at 195 Greenwich street, had his had knocked off in Fulton street last might, and received a se-vere blow on the back of his head with what he thought was a policeman's club. It was a colling pin in the hands of his wire, Amstasia. If had her arcasted. The matrimonial large of the pair are well known to the po-lice as Mrs. Barry has repeatedly caused her husband's arrest on charges of striking her.

Lost his Wife and Fined $10.

August Smith of 237 Scholes street, Brooklyn, Monday night a mounted to the Stage street police

The Thermometer in New York Yesterday. At Hudnut's Pharmacy at 3 A. M. 61°; 6, 63°; 9, 70°; 12, 72°; 3% P. M. 72°; 6, 71°; 9, 67°; 12, 63°;

The Signal Office Prediction. For the middle At antic States clear or partly cloudy weather, variable winds mostly westerly, stationary or higher temperature and barometer.

Rest substitute for mother's milk, 25c. All druggists.

The Victor Baby Food.